October 2011

About ASCD:

Welcome to the Hofstra University ASCD Student Chapter Club. ASCD, the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development is a worldwide organization that promotes professional development among educators. Being an international group, ASCD is comprised of members from over 135 countries. Thanks to the establishment of Hofstra's student chapter both undergraduate and graduate students from Hofstra have become part of the ASCD community.

September's Meeting:

At last month's meeting we had a wonderful speaker named Jonathan Klomp, Director of Social Studies at Amityville Schools, come and speak about proposed changes to the APPR (Annual Professional Performance Review), a teacher evaluation system. He discussed the rubrics that administrators are using to evaluate teachers which align with Charlotte Danielson's book, Enhancing Professional Practice. As future students, we need to be familiar with these new evaluation rubrics so that we can be prepared to fulfill what is expected of us. We greatly appreciate Jonathan Klomp coming to visit us and informing us of this important topic that we need to be aware of as prospective teachers.
